

Børglum Kollegiet - House rules

The rules are applicable to tenants, subtenants as well as guests.

1. Conduct

All residents have the responsibility of maintaining peace and order at the dormitory. Every resident is due to adhere to rules in that respect given by the residents' board and/or by the administration.

1.a. On a voluntary and unsolicited basis the residents must respect the life style necessary at the dormitory in order to show consideration for all residents – especially the need for silence at night and when studying must be respected. This is applicable in particular when private get-togethers are arranged.

b. Intake of psychedelic drugs are prohibited according to Danish existing laws which is why it is also prohibited at the Børglum Kollegiet. In case of delivery, sale or intake of psychedelic drugs at the dormitory's area, a written warning will be given immediately. In particular severe and repeated cases, it may result in prompt termination of the lease with a 3 months of notice or with an annulment of the lease with immediate effect. Any such incidence will be reported to the police if considered necessary.

2. Rooms

1.a. All floors must be washed with a special kind of soap that is to be collected free of charge at the office. Sodium carbonate, liquid soap or any other corrosive, liquid detergent must not be applied.

b. Only common toilet paper is allowed in the toilet drains. All other paper material, cotton pad, cotton wool, cotton buds, sanitary towels or the like will clog the drains.

c. In case the drain from the sink is clogged, the resident is obliged to report to the janitors by sending an email to: service@boerglumkollegiet.dk

3. Storage

3.a. If the tenant do not wish to use the room's appertaining furniture, it is possible to have it stored in the dormitory's storage room. Please contact the office for further instructions. The tenant is to move the furniture himself to the storage room according to the office's instructions. The dormitory will hand over a signed receipt for the received furniture and hereafter the responsibility for the storage lies with the dormitory.

b. Storage of belongings in the basement's storage room is at the resident's own risk, hence the Børglum Kollegie cannot be held responsible. Flammable substances such as turpentine, paint or petroleum and so on is strictly prohibited in the storage rooms.

4. The corridors

4.a. According to the fire authorities it is strictly prohibited to store belongings in the corridors due to the fact that the corridors serve as fire exits. Should this not be respected, the belongings will be removed immediately by the janitors with no further notice and under no liability. The door to the kitchen must always be kept closed as the door also is a fire exit.

b. The tenants of every corridor have a joint responsibility for cleaning the shared area and its inventory according to the guidelines of the cleaning. The guidelines are pinned unto the kitchen wall/door. Please clean according to the guidelines. In case of neglect of cleaning the area or the guidelines are not followed, the administration can order cleaning from an external company at the expense of the residents.

c. The tenants are responsible for handling the dormitory's furniture and items properly. The tenants are also expected to see to that the dormitory's furniture or item is removed from the shared areas.

d. The dormitory put refrigerators and freezers at every corridor's disposal. It is allowed to install an extra refrigerator and freezer as well in the kitchen by prior agreement with the janitors. On the contrary, it is not allowed to keep neither refrigerator, freezer, electric kettle, dish washer nor washing machine in the rooms.
